Re: Purpose for Request for Compiled Data

Dear Mrs. Donnelly-Miller:

The purpose for the bulk compiled data is to assist individuals and businesses that desire the recovery of their judgments. My efforts will assist those who can not afford the services of an attorney. It will give them open access to their cases. The role of the judiciary will be supported by the quick, expedient and just resolution of the individual rights and interests of the plaintiffs in these cases. Citizens will feel less reluctant to utilize the court system. They will believe that the system works and has not failed them. What use is it to get a judgment that you can not recover?

My judgment recovery efforts will facilitate in judicial efficiency and economy. It will make the most effective use of court resources. This will all be accomplished without having a negative affect on the courts. The ongoing business of the judiciary will not be unduly burdened by this request. Also, none of the information that I am requesting is excluded from public records.

If you have any questions or concerns, please, contact me at the above address to discuss these matters. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.
